Open Studios Showcase Exhibition

Our Open Studios Showcase set in the Barn Gallery, within the beautifully landscaped grounds of the Bield will include pieces of work from many of this year's participating artists. The Showcase Exhibition provides an opportunity to view, in one place, examples of artwork in advance of visiting the artists' own venues. Indeed, many visitors find it helpful to visit ahead of deciding which venues to visit during our nine day event. Come and see our exhibition, enjoy the art on display, explore the varied artistic media that Perthshire has to offer and grasp the opportunity to visit the grounds of the Bield. It all make for a truly enjoyable and contemplative experience.

We have two 'artists in residence' who will welcome visitors and will be delighted to answer questions about their work and practice.

Diana of Diana King Jewellery is returning to the Bield this year having enjoyed her stint so much last year, chatting to the visitors, exhibiting her wonderful Stirling silver and resin pieces. Diana always manages to design something new for each exhibition, we're looking forward to seeing what it is this year and to hear how the courses she introduced this year have gone. Our second artist in residence is new to the Bield although a veteran of POS, Marion Foster is the creative force behind "Askival of Strathearn" and the founder of the College of Master Kilt Tailors (CMKT). The CMKT offers an eLearning Accredited Training Programme titled "Bespoke Tailoring of the Kilt, its Variations, and Restoration" providing a comprehensive pathway to becoming a Certified Master Craftsman. This year "Askival of Strathearn" has revived the stunning 2 x 2 twill weave 100% mulberry spun silk tartan, the identical weave to that used in traditional wool tartan, without Marion's involvement this beautiful fabric would have died out. "Askival of Strathearn" will be exhibiting beautiful silk and wool stoles, sashes, and other tartan attire that showcase the enchanting imagery of the tartan pattern.

Do pop along and meet these talented individuals and all of the wonderful art on display.

The Barn Gallery,
30th August - 14th September
Open daily 10 am to 5 pm.

WELCOME

to Perthshire Open Studios 2025

This annual nine day event has become a fixture in many a visitors calendar. A chance to visit artists in their studios, homes, workshops, galleries, halls and cowsheds across the stunning landscape that is Perthshire.

Whether you have visited before or this is your first time, you'll meet artists who are new to the event and some who have been involved since the inception of POS almost 20 years ago. Hours of creative activity, developing skills and techniques have gone into the work you will see. Your visit will be greatly appreciated and makes all that effort worthwhile.

This year we have seven routes of mostly the same size across Perthshire. So how to choose which venues to visit given there's so much choice?

Our brochure provides a detailed directory with maps from which you can locate artists or media in a specific area. We have a pdf version of the brochure on our website so you can download it and have it on your device when you are on the go even in the most remote parts of Perthshire. Our website holds a more detailed directory of artists taking part in the Open Studios, you can search by artist, media or location / route. If you'd like a preview / taster of artists work you can do so at the Open Studios Showcase exhibition.

A huge thank you to all the volunteers involved in making this event happen. Thank you to our suppliers and sponsors for their help in achieving our aims. To the artists for being brave and willing to display their work and workspaces. Finally, to the visitors local or more travelled, we hope you find your visits, enjoyable, inspiring and memorable!

Louise creates intricate, delicate images, cut from a single sheet of paper. Each image starts off as a drawing, before being cut out, by hand, with a scalpel. Louise has started a series of papercut landscapes, capturing some of the beautiful Perthshire scenery that she has on her doorstep.

All my work is thrown on a wheel, I love trying to create a well thrown vessel, so my pieces are unique, I love being on the wheel with no gauges or rulers, just the feel of the clay doing its thing! My glazes so far are muted and minimal, keeping as much of the clay exposed as possible.

Tim's work uses both ancient and contemporary processes: bronze sculptures cast using the lost wax process dating back thousands of years, and digitally-created images using modern technology.

The bronze pieces range from classical, figurative pieces to modern abstracts.

The digital work embraces both traditional landscapes and post-modern explorations of the human form.

Glen Lyon is one of the most beautiful in Scotland. Tim's studio is in the converted stables of a beautiful old coach house set in a lovely garden and woodlands.

Artisanand was established in 2014, having the gallery allows me to exhibit my art along with the art of other emerging and established Perthshire artists.

We offer an eclectic and quirky selection of artwork in many media, including lots of 3D, in a light and bright gallery space, the front of which is entirely glass, the artwork is the focus and there is room to stand back and enjoy.

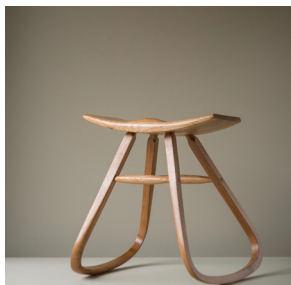

In September, as part of the Open Studios Festival, there will be a mixed exhibition featuring many of our gallery favourites. There may be a few popping in to say hello and possibly doing a demo or two, check out the website for details nearer the time.

During Open Studios I'll be working on a number of new projects, 3d sculptural wall art in Harris Tweed, upcycled and re-upholstered furniture, lamp bases and lampshades, decoupaged scallops, felt jewellery and sculptures. I love trying new techniques and testing my skills with new challenges.

Come along and see what I'm working on and perhaps have a go?

Look for orange signs and arrows from A9 along B898 for Dalguise or from Logierait Bridge A827.

This year I am back in my lovely studio in my burnside garden in Dalguise. I paint atmospheric landscapes filled with trees, water and an emphasis on light and pattern. Figures, wild swimmers and animals often appear in my work. There will also be small textile gift items such as notebooks and bags.

From the B9099 through Caputh heading north, turn right into Bridge Rd, the cottage is at the end of the terrace

In my oil painting series, I focus on still life compositions of flowers, vases, bottles, and jars with mirrored reflections. These ethereal works highlight the transient beauty of nature and encourage viewers to appreciate fleeting moments. By emphasizing mindfulness, I invite others to be present and savor the beauty in every moment.

Perth Creative Exchange is located in the former St John's School building on Stormont Street.

Join us at Perth Creative Exchange as six of our artists open their doors!

Now established as Perth's main creative hub & home to artists' studios, creative businesses, new community facilities, workshops & the Famous Grouse Ideas Centre, this is a chance to chat & buy work directly from some of the artist/makers of Creative Exchange, and hear about techniques & inspirations. This year you'll find a mix of disciplines: bookbinding, felt-making, ceramics, mixed media & painting, plus our current exhibition in the gallery space. When you've seen everything there is to see, visitors are welcome to relax in our comfortable foyer & enjoy our art library! There will be demonstrations such as pottery throwing & the chance to find out about our future events, exhibitions & any workshops coming up!

Opening this year are:
Marion Archibald – Book Binding
Kerri Watson - Felt Design
Ceri White Studios – Ceramics
Creative Catalyst Scotland – Mixed Media
Morven Stewart – Painting

We're on Glasgow Rd opposite Lidl. Enter front door and turn right along the corridor. Plenty of parking.

We run creative workshops for all ages and abilities in our spacious and welcoming art studio in the centre of Perth!

Established in 2022 by Sara Barr, a qualified Primary School Teacher with an art degree from Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art. Originally started as after school art classes for children, we are now open every day of the week and run kids' classes, adult classes, family workshops, art parties, private workshops and lots more!

We try our hand at everything, experiment with different medium, enjoy learning new art skills and use lots of varied art materials and equipment. Projects are often upcycling and reusing materials.

For POS we hope to inspire and encourage you to find your creative flair and come and try your hand at different art projects in our studio (suitable for all ages).

We will be opening our art space to showcase some of the wonderful creative work from our pupils. We'll also have arts and crafts you can purchase too! Come and see what we're all about!

Marys' Patch Glencarse, has a wide selection of patchworking fabric. We also have a varied patchwork teaching program running 4 days a week in our compact shop. A recent addition is our Q'nique 14+ long arm quilting machine, which has revolutionised our quilting and has made making larger quilts much more achievable.

We have a small range of patchworked items for sale.

We love Steampunk designs here. So we have a wide variety of Steampunk themed fabric, plus batiks, plains, patterned and as many colours as we can fit in a small space.

We stock a wide variety of different wadding's.

We are also a busy teaching space and our small patchwork classes produce some amazing quilts on a weekly basis. Suitable for raw beginners and more experienced patchworkers, we cater for all ability levels.

Located exactly halfway between Crieff and Auchterarder on the B8062, my studio is signposted with wooden signs

Inside my studio you will find a unique range of wooden and tree inspired artwork. A modern day Womble- making good use of the things that I find! Wall hangings made from repurposed bicycle wheels, lamps made from repurposed carpentry planes and broken pottery restored using Japanese Kintsugi.

Off the Perth to Creiff A85 turn towards Tibbermore, The Bield is on the left about 300 yards.

Among Scotland's few remaining kilt tailors dedicated to this heritage craft, is Marion Foster, the creative force behind "Askival of Strathearn" and the founder of the CMKT. After years of honing her tailoring expertise and crafting kilts to the highest standards, Marion recognised the pressing need to safeguard the intricate skills, methodologies, and knowledge she had painstakingly acquired. The CMKT offers an eLearning; Accredited Training programme titled "Bespoke Tailoring of the Kilt, its Variations and Restoration" providing a comprehensive pathway to becoming a Certified Master Craftsman.

"Askival of Strathearn" has revived the stunning 2 x 2 twill weave 100% mulberry spun silk tartan, the identical weave to that used in traditional wool tartan. This twill weave produces a smooth, soft-textured fabric celebrated for its superior draping qualities compared to plain weave fabrics. Harnessing her technical expertise creativity, and passion, Marion creates beautiful silk and wool stoles, sashes, and other tartan attire that showcase the enchanting imagery of the tartan pattern.

The landscape's changing light, hues and shades have fascinated me since I was young. I strive for my paintings to come alive through focussing on changing light and shadows. Using a mixed medium from oil, acrylic & pastels. I work in layers exploring variations of colour and texture.
